

game because Giants lost two. James outpitched Ames in first, but Lear was better than Davis in second. Moran and Smith each cracked three hits in first, Red's homer in ninth winning. Reds scored all runs of second game in last inning. It was the first Cincinnati victory in 20 games.

Even Tesreau now loses for Giants. His wild pitch in eighth inning of first game gave Cards a win. Marquard was batted hard in second and lost his 12th straight. Perritt and Sallee puzzled the Giants. Dolan cracked three doubles and a single in the two frays, and Jack Miller pounded a single and two doubles in the second.

Brooklyn made it eight straight by winning two from Pirates. Pfeffer allowed but two hits in first game until ninth. Scheeren's homer was only score. Rucker held Pirates to five swats in second. Cooper and Conzleman were soft. Daubert slammed three wallops in second.

Browns made 13 hits, but five errors in fifth inning gave Yanks easy win. Cree maced three hits. Rickey was peeved at his regulars, and took 'em all out when they became woozy.

Top Tops rallied late, but couldn't cut down Kay See lead. Brown and Johnson were both knocked from box. Kenworthy registered a single, double and triple.

Oakes knocked a homer with two on to help Pittsburgh beat Sloufeds. He also slashed two single. Delehanty rammed two triples and a single and Savage a triple and two singles. Watson and Groom were easy. LeClair held Sloufeds to three hits.

TIME TO INQUIRE

"How are you going to tell when there is anything of importance going on?" asked one war correspondent.

"I'll keep my eyes on the censor," replied the other. "Whenever there's nothing given out for publication, you may know it's time to hustle and get the news."—Washington Star.

De Lave

De Lave is one of the stars of the Butler Brothers' team, contesting for the national amateur baseball championship. Last Sunday Butler Bros. beat Louisville and won the right to play in the finals against the winner of the three-cornered contest between St. Louis, Cleveland and Toledo.
